MUSIC AND ART.

Norfolk Singers Score a Great Success at Hampton.

A "Weber" Recital by Miss Julie Geyer
 For Tuesday Afternoon Next—Delightful Recital at Mary Washington College—Minor Matters in Local Circles

Miss Florence Smith has recently executed some very charming miniatures that are attracting much attention and very favorable comment.

A number of the local artists have formed a sketching club for outdoor work during the coming Summer. Norfolk and its environs present an inexhaustible field for the artist in the way of charming landscape and marines.

Miss S. B. Patis, one of Norfolk's popular sopranos, has accepted a position as leading soprano at St. Paul's Church. She will enter on her duties there this morning.

The Seaboard Air Line Band, the crack musical organization of the Norfolk section, covered itself with glory during the recent Democratic State Convention. Its fine music was generally appreciated, and was in harmony with all of the superb appointments of convention hall and the excellent arrangements for the entertainment of our guests, the flower of Virginia Democracy.

Norfolk singers scored a great success Thursday night at the First Baptist Church, Hampton, on the occasion of the Hampton festival and concert for the benefit of the church. Miss Florence Smith, the talented soprano of St. Luke's choir, was heard in several charmingly rendered numbers. Wm. Crowell appeared to great advantage in popular ballads, and some of his irresistible comic songs. R. Percy Alley displayed his talents as an elocutionist, and all received hearty applause and numerous encores. The house was filled to its capacity, and a handsome sum was netted by the church. Miss Adelaide Richter, of Hampton, one of the most talented pianists of the section, presided at the piano in her usual graceful manner.

Miss Julie Geyer, of New York City, will appear in Norfolk at Y. M. C. A. Hall on Tuesday, May 9th, 1899, and give a charming recital. This is the first of a series of three concerts that Miss Geyer will give. The second will be given at Petersburg, and the third at Richmond. Admission will be by card of invitation. The recital will open at 4 p. m.

The choice programme for the occasion is as follows:

I. Fantasia, C minor.....Mozart
 Nocturne, E major.....Schumann
 Gretchen am Spinnrade.....Schubert-Liszt
 II. Rhapsodie, G minor.....Brahms
 Barcarolle, A minor.....Henselt
 Valse, Le Bal.....Rubinstein
 III. Improvisation, Op. 39.....Chopin
 Valse, in F.....Henselt-Joseffy
 Rhapsodie, No. 12.....Liszt

One of the most delightful musical recitals of the season was that given on the evening of Tuesday, May 1st, by the pupils at Mary Washington College. The attendance was large and the skillful manner in which the participants acquitted themselves speaks volumes for the excellence of the training they receive.

The program rendered was as follows:
 Piano Solo—"Elegance".....Gounod
 Misses Sadie Wilkins and Ida Scott
 Vocal Solo—"Ecstasy".....Henselt
 Miss Dora Brandt
 Reading—"Babbie" (from "The Little Minister").....James Barrie
 Miss Margaret Smith
 Piano Solo—"Air de Ballet".....Chaminade
 Miss Alice Jones
 Vocal Solo—"My Seditious".....Dessauer

Reading—"George Washington's Birthday".....Will Allen Dromgoole
 Miss Christine Graves
 Piano Solo—"Valse" in D flat.....Chopin
 Miss Bessie Hirschler
 Chorus—"My Heart's in the Highlands".....Denschel
 Soprano:
 Misses Berkeley, Martin, Postle, Baker, Brandt, Smith.

Also:
 Misses Warren, Nash, Wilkins.
 Reading—"Jack, the Fisherman".....Miss Maude Halstead Rhodes.
 Piano Solo—"An Maith".....Godard
 Miss Sadie Wilkins.
 Vocal Solo—"Dove Wings".....Woodman
 Miss Louise Berkeley.
 Reading—"Aunt Taber at the Opera".....Miss Alben Saunders Pettit.
 Piano Solo—"Grand Polka de Concert".....Bartlett
 Miss Nellie Sanford.
 Vocal Duet—"The Pine and the Palm".....Mary Knight Wood
 Mrs. Barcroft and Miss Oliver.
 Reading—"Pepeloni".....Margie Cloud
 Miss Elizabeth Hill.
 Piano Duet—"Over Hill and Dale".....Engelmann

THE FIELD OF LABOR.

At the semi-annual election of officers of the Wood, Wire and Metal Lathers' International Union, Local, No. 11, the following were chosen to serve the ensuing term: President, Samuel McChesney; Vice-President, W. C. Cherry; Recording Secretary, W. Fauser; Financial Secretary, D. Butler; Sergeant-at-Arms, John Franklin. Treasurer and Finance Committee hold office one year. Of the organizations formed during the past few months none have been more aggressive than the Lathers' Protective Union, No. 11, of this city and vicinity. This organization was formed three months ago with twenty-five charter members and two weeks later allied itself with the International Union, and also sent delegates to the Central Labor Union. Since its formation it has steadily gained in strength until to-day its membership embraces every lather in this vicinity, save two, having taken in four new members at their last meeting. This growth is remarkable, considering the short time the organization has been in existence, and the officers and members deserve to be complimented for their splendid work. The Lathers' Union has secured a scale of $2 per thousand, an increase over the former wages.

The bricklayers have taken the initiative in Newport News in making a demand for a working day of eight hours, similar to the demand that is being made all over the country. At its last meeting, Bricklayers' Union No. 3 adopted a resolution declaring that after yesterday the members of the union would work only eight hours a day at a regular rate of 45 cents an hour.

Mr. M. J. Moore, one of the leading contractors of Newport News, says that a mistake was made in a statement that the carpenters of that city demanded a nine-hour day of their bosses. The carpenters went to the contractors, he said, and asked for a shortening of the working day from ten hours to nine hours.

No demand was made, although the carpenters stated that they would like to have an answer in thirty days. It is not likely that any of the carpenters will go out on strike, as it is believed that all contractors will agree to the nine-hour day.

LAMBERT'S POINT.

Mr. George W. Pace, Jr., proprietor of the Myers Avenue pharmacy, has returned from the Baltimore College of Pharmacy, where he has just graduated in a two-years' course in pharmacy.

Rev. Flournoy Bouldin, rector of St. Marks Episcopal Church, has returned from a visit to his mother, in Charlotte county. He reports her health very much improved. Mr. Bouldin will conduct evening prayer service at St. Marks Church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The match game of ball between the Bridgeport team and the Athletics of Portsmouth, which was to have come off here yesterday, was postponed to next Saturday afternoon.

The Lambert's Point W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Lanier's, on Pocahontas avenue, next Thursday afternoon.

The handsome and commodious frame residence of Mr. Beard, on Lambert's Point road, is rapidly nearing completion. When finished it will be an ornament to that section of the village.

Miss Mattie Jordan, teacher in the Port Norfolk public school, is the guest of her sister, Miss Nona Jordan, of Pocahontas avenue.

Captain L. W. Lambert, of Myers Avenue and Forty-third street, has had his swift sailing yacht, George Milner, handsomely fitted up for the use of pleasure excursion parties during the summer.

Workmen were engaged yesterday with a pile driver sinking new piles under the trestle of the Norfolk City Railway Company, which crosses Lambert's creek one mile south of the village.

Truckers in this section say that a continuation of the present cool spell for several days will impede very much the strawberry crop. The early bean crop has been seriously affected by the cold and backward spring.

A number of young ladies of this section are contemplating giving a spring festival in the near future.

A movement is on foot to establish a letter file manufactory here. A building has already been erected for that purpose.

Messrs. Myers & Co. will soon begin the erection of another row of dwellings in the section tributary to the silk mill. It is said the buildings will be occupied by the families of hands to be employed in the mill.

The Star Athletic Club will meet at its club-rooms Monday night to arrange for a boxing match to take place in the near future.

Rev. George W. Cox will preach the anniversary sermon of the Knights of Pythias of this place at Burrows Memorial Baptist Church at 11 o'clock this morning. The members of the lodge will meet at their hall and proceed to the church in a body.

BRAMBLETON.

Mr. B. C. Hume, of the Central Hospital, Petersburg, has accepted the position of pharmaceutical clerk with Mr. Geo. M. Meredith, druggist, corner of Brambleton and Park avenues.

Through the personal efforts of Mr. Edward J. Jordan, the Norfolk post office has placed a letter box at the southeast corner of Brambleton and Reservoir avenues for the convenience of residents in that immediate section of the ward.

Mrs. Katie Oliver Portlock, wife of Mr. Silvio F. Portlock, departed this life at the home of her husband, No. 112 North Marshall avenue, at 11:30 a. m. yesterday after a lingering illness, aged 22 years. The deceased was a most estimable lady of sweet disposition and was greatly admired by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who will read the announcement of her death with deep expressions of sorrow. The funeral will take place from the Christian Memorial Temple at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. She leaves one child to mourn her loss.

Mr. Chas. Crowder and his bride have returned from their wedding tour, and are at home to their friends on North Park avenue.

Mr. Curtis Green, of Wakefield, Va., is visiting relatives at Captain J. J. Miller's on South Kelly avenue.

Astounding Reductions in Ladies' Tailor-Made Suits.

Some reductions exceed the possibility of exaggeration, and this is one of that class. Phenomenal! Read the prices, and see the suits are all we request. You will not find a motley medley of ugly unsightly sweat-shop suits; but vice versa: You will find a carefully selected line of stylish seasonable suits made in clean places by makers of good repute. Here are the slain prices:

A few odd $22.50 Suits $12.50
A few odd 25.00 Suits 15.00
A few odd 35.00 Suits 19.00
A few odd 40.00 Suits 19.00

$40.00 Suits $29.00
35.00 Suits 25.00
27.50 Suits 22.00
25.00 Suits 17.00
